DO NOT DESPISE THE DAY OF LITTLE THINGS

Gather in the Little Vote Certificates and Boost Your Standing. Every Little Bit Added to What You Got Makes Just a Little Bit More. Raise Your Standing to 500 and Put Your Name on the Roll of Honor.

DESPISE NOT THE DAY OF LITTLE THINGS, is an old saying worthy of a great deal of consideration from the ladies in the race for the $2500 in prizes that the Brainerd Dispatch is giving away to the ladies of the Northland.

Despise not the day of little things lest that you, in your day of want, may long for them. Every little bit added to what you've got make just a little bit more, so don't neglect gathering up the little subscriptions as they may be your salvation in the final count.

Are you going to be among that list of a chosen few? It is up to you whether or not you will be. Do not neglect your opportunities but make the most of them. You can surely do this if you choose. Your friends will certainly miss your name on the list of candidates and will think that you have retreated under fire. Do not let this happen.

If your name is not now on the Roll of Honor put it there at once. This will be much easier than it sounds, as it is a matter of votes. You must have friends both in your own district and in others who are interested in your success in life, who would like to see you own "The Dispatch," the Model 10, Buick car, the Mammoth Prize of this contest. Call upon or write to these friends and get their aid. See if they will not give you a subscription.

LOOK OUTSIDE FOR VOTES

If you think you have exhausted your own district try another one. Votes from all districts look alike to the contest department if they are regular, and the subscription that you may get may come from Zanztar, if you can get them in before the contest closes.

Do not be down-hearted in any case, even if you are temporarily unable to prevent your name from slipping into the waiting list at the start. A subscription or two will put it back again and you will see it alongside those who have had more time or better luck than you have had in getting subscriptions. Brace up and do not give yourself the chance to be evasive.

There is ample time between now and June 29th to do the grand work if you will try. You have 26 days to work in. One subscription a day and a few coupons will be likely to land you a winner and there they will be a joy in your home.

WHY EVERYONE SHOULD TAKE THE DISPATCH

There is a good and sufficient reason why every resident of Brainerd and northern Minnesota and the territory tributary to Brainerd should take the Dispatch. First, because it is the only home local daily published in the territory and the people ought to support a home paper, but that is

All you contestants whose standings have not reached the 500 mark need not despair. Get busy and gather the 400 votes necessary, poll them and place your name on the Roll of Honor.

Miss Bessie Paine still retains the lead of the entire contest with 13145 votes over her standing of yesterday. The second honor is still retained by Miss Kathleen Rounds, with 12930 votes.

Have you got the book of five yet, and earned the 10,000 extra votes that it entitles you to? If not, get busy. This is your Golden Opportunity; seize it with both hands and get all that it offers you.

There are still some splendid chances in the districts. Enter your name in the big race today. Get a "Book of Five," and be numbered among the winners at the close.

not the principal reason. It is as follows: Because the Brainerd Dispatch through its columns have given the Northland a representation and a position that it would have been unable to obtain had it not been for The Dispatch. It brought to public notice the development of the agricultural and mineral lands surrounding the city, thereby advertising Brainerd and its agricultural and mineral resources over the entire Middle West, through the publicity given these resources by the Duluth, Twin City and out of state papers. This is a class of advertising that money cannot buy.

Did the Dispatch get paid for this? Not that anybody knows anything about, and if they did, it doesn't show on the books of the company, yet this is just one instance of what The Dispatch is doing every day, every month and every year for Northern Minnesota, and the people it is so faithfully serving. Friends and readers, is not this a sufficient reason why you should take and help support the organ that is putting the life blood of progress in your veins. Without advertising and publicity, any new and undeveloped country lies dormant now-a-days. Northern Minnesotans. Can you afford to be without The Dispatch? You know you cannot. Then acknowledge it by helping some contestant in the race for the $2500 in prizes The Dispatch is giving away by taking the paper that means dollars and cents to you in the increase of property values by the growth and development of a territory The Dispatch serves.

ACCUSED MEN OUT ON BAIL

Illinois Legislators Appear in Court and Give Bonds.

JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS BRIEF

Indicted Solons Released With the Understanding That Bondsmen Will Produce Them at the Order of the Court—Senator Broderick Denies That He Ever Gave State Senator Holstlaw Money.

Springfield, Ill., May 31.—State Senator John Broderick of Chicago and Stanton C. Pemberton of Oakland, together with Representative Joseph S. Clark of Vandavia, accused in the recent confession of State Senator D. W. Holstlaw of nefarious conduct as legislators, appeared before Judge Creighton in the circuit court and gave bond.

Senator Pemberton arrived a little earlier in the day from his home in Oakland and Representative Clark had been here over night. The three, with their attorneys and bondsmen, hastened to the courthouse.

The judicial proceedings were brief. The bond of Senator Broderick was fixed at $10,000 and was promptly signed by Benjamin F. Kirlin, a Springfield liverman, and Richard Egan, a contractor of Springfield. The same bondsmen presented themselves as sureties for Representative Clark in the sum of $5,000, and Senator Pemberton's bond of $5,000 was signed by J. F. Crawford and C. C. Ashmore of Oakland, Ill., and William M. Checkley of Mattoon. No date was set for the trials of the indicted men, their sureties binding themselves to produce the three at the order of the court.

Burke Visits Holstlaw.

While the indicted legislators were giving bonds in the courthouse, which, as the old state house, was the scene of Abraham Lincoln's first experience as a state representative, State Attorney Burke was hastening to Iuka, the home of Senator D. W. Holstlaw, whose confession was basis for the charge of bribery returned against Senator Broderick and of conspiracy to commit a felony returned against Senator Pemberton and Representative Clark. It was rumored that the visit to Iuka would result in the introduction of documentary evidence which would serve to corroborate the confession of the Iuka senator.

On the trip from Chicago with Deputy Sheriff Long, Senator Broderick chatted volubly with other occupants of the car, confining most of his conversation, however, to general topics far removed from the inquiry into things regarding bribery. He is reported as having said that Senator Holstlaw visited him last summer in Chicago, but whether by invitation or of his own volition Broderick could not remember. The Chicago senator said he never had talked with Holstlaw about the election of Senator Lbrimer, nor of money, nor had he ever given the Iuka member of the upper house any money. His retirement from view while the Springfield deputy sheriff and Chicago detectives were searching for him was touched on and caused a marked silence.

No witnesses in the legislative investigation were taken before the Sangamon county grand jury owing to the absence of State Attorney Burke.

TALKS TO SWEDISH SINGERS

Mayor Gaynor Praises Them at Banquet.

New York, May 31.—Mayor Gaynor and Herman de Lagercrantz, the Swedish minister, were the guests of honor at the banquet tendered by the Swedish Singing societies of New York to the American Union of Swedish Singers, who have been holding a song festival here.

The mayor, in his address, said: "You have come here and presented a chorus of over 600 voices the like of which we have never known before. It has given us great pleasure, and even the German newspapers have advised their readers to hear you and learn singing in chorus."

He praised the political independence of Swedish-Americans and concluded by saying: "You come of a great race and have mingled with many races, and the result is evident."

ROOSEVELT AND ROOT HOLD A CONFERENCE

Former President and the Senator Meet in London.

London, May 31.—Ex-President Roosevelt has had an opportunity to hear something of affairs in the United States. By appointment he met Senator Elihu Root, who is passing through London on his way to The Hague. Mr. Roosevelt and his former secretary of state had a long talk at Ambassador Reid's residence, Dorchester House. Asked later what interesting subject kept them together for so long a time Mr. Roosevelt laughingly replied:

"This is one of the cases in which I must observe my usual reticence." Mr. Roosevelt made a call on Mrs. Humphrey Ward, with whom he took tea. He dined with Lord Charles Beresford, whose guests included many prominent members of the Unionist party. Ambassador Reid also was present, as were Admiral Sir Edward Hobart Seymour, Admiral Sir Girard Noel, Vice Admiral Sir Hedworth Lambton, Lord Roberts, Lord Alverstone and Lord Rothschild.

FIVE SERIOUSLY INJURED

Auto Loaded With Old Soldiers Overturns.

Morris, Minn., May 31.—The Memorial day services at Morris were marred by an accident.

A part of the programme was the taking of the Morris old soldiers to visit the Hancock old soldiers by the Automobile club, a distance of ten miles. While en route a car driven by Max Tranto was overturned, throwing out its five occupants.

All were seriously hurt. H. L. Smith sustained a fracture of the arm and injuries to his head and Mrs. Israel Mumbleau had two broken ribs.

Minnesota Prohibitionists.

Minneapolis, May 31.—Prohibitionists of Minnesota will hold their annual convention in Minneapolis Friday, July 1. This was decided at the regular weekly meeting of the executive committee of the state committee of the party.

CONFER WITH WICKERSHAM

Western Shippers Meet the Attorney General.

SHOULD HAVE MORE POWER

Cabinet Officer Believes Commerce Commission Should Be Given Authority to Pass Upon Reasonableness of Increased Rates Before Such Rates Shall Go Into Effect—Transportation Situation in West Demands Earnest Consideration.

Washington, May 31.—It is the opinion of Attorney General Wickersham that the situation presented by the action of railroads operating in Middle and Northwestern territory in raising rates makes necessary the adoption of an amendment to the interstate commerce act giving the interstate commerce commission authority to pass upon increased rates before such rates shall become effective. Mr. Wickersham expressed an opinion to this effect soon after a conference with the representatives of Western shippers who came to Washington to ask that proceedings be instituted to enjoin railroads operating in Minnesota, Nebraska, Iowa, Wisconsin, Illinois and Kansas from enforcing higher rates which they have given notice shall become effective on June 1.

At the conference the shippers contended that the increased rates complained of had been agreed upon as a result of "a conspiracy" amounting to a combination in restraint of trade. They urged that proceedings be instituted against the offending railroads under the terms of the Sherman anti-trust act. The shippers further contended that the increased rates are excessive, and that in present conditions rates should be lowered instead of lifted.

Demands Earnest Consideration.

After listening to the representations of the shippers Attorney General Wickersham expressed the opinion informally that the situation in the transportation world in the West demanded earnest consideration, and he said further that he had about reached the conclusion that the interstate commerce commission should be given authority to pass upon the reasonableness of increased rates before such rates shall become operative.

The idea expressed by Attorney General Wickersham was embodied in the Cummins amendment which was recently defeated in the senate.

It is the belief of the shippers represented here that the action of the railroads in increasing rates was taken to fortify themselves against the new bill in amendment of the interstate commerce act. The pending bill authorizes the commission to suspend the effective date of proposed increases, and to make inquiries on its own motion. The proposed increases, however, it is alleged, would be in effect for a long time before they could possibly be changed by the commission unless it were given powers broader than it is proposed to confer on that body.

Shippers from all the states named above were present at the conference in the office of Attorney General Wickersham. Minnesota was represented by Frank Pool, Albert E. Clark and W. P. Trislett of Minneapolis and C. Rust and Ray Hall of Duluth.

The attorney general was urged to invoke the Sherman anti-trust act against all the prominent railroads operating between the Mississippi and Missouri rivers which subscribe to the decisions of the Western trunk line committee. That committee, according to the shippers heard by Mr. Wickersham, on May 1 filed with the interstate commerce commission notice that on June 1 they would raise freight rates in the Middle Western territory anywhere from 10 to 50 per cent over the present schedules. It was charged that the carriers concerned entered into a combination and advanced the rates illegally.

INNOCENT MAN IN PRISON

Serving Time for Crime He Did Not Commit.

Milwaukee, May 31.—After two years of servitude in the state's prison at Waupun, John Tarasinski, sentenced to twenty-five years in the penitentiary for being implicated in the robbery of the Skarb-Sobieski Loan and Building association and the murder of Dominic Gapinski, one of its directors, has been declared innocent by three men whose confession two years ago sent the four to prison.

The three are: Joseph Marusik, T. Frank Scymczak and Jacob Zapackowski. The two former are serving twenty-five-year sentences, and the latter a fourteen-year sentence for their implication in the murder and robbery.

The confession is said to have been made on May 17 to a half-sister of Tarasinski and three others in the state prison. Court officials who were instrumental in his conviction will work for an unconditional pardon.

Cornell Crew Victorious.

Boston, May 31.—Sixteen strong armed Cornell oarsmen swept Charles river, the varsity crew defeating Harvard in a beautiful race by a full length, while the freshmen completely outclassed the Crimson eight, winning by six lengths.

TILLMAN IN A SANITARIUM

South Carolina Senator Suffering From Attack of Rheumatism.

Atlanta, Ga., May 31.—Suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism, United States Senator Benjamin R. Tillman of South Carolina arrived in this city and was taken to a sanitarium for treatment.

Although suffering considerably, Senator Tillman walked without aid to an automobile. Dr. W. W. Blackburn, who has Senator Tillman in charge, says there is no connection between the rheumatic attack and the paralytic stroke for which the senator was treated here last May.

WOMAN ACCUSED OF COMPLICITY IN CRIME

Police Believe Her Husband Killed Alma Kellner.

Louisville, May 31.—Mrs. Joseph Wendling was arrested on the charge of being an accessory to the murder of Alma Kellner, whose mutilated body was found Monday morning in a cistern under one of the parochial buildings of St. John's Catholic church.

Confronted with a gold ring and a pin which had been found in her trunk and after the pin had been positively identified by the mother of the long missing child as one which Alma wore the day she disappeared, Mrs. Wendling maintained a stolid demeanor and casually vouchsafed the information that the ring and the pin had been given to her boy by a boy who found them on the street.

Mrs. Wendling also admitted that stains on some clothing which she washed for her husband a short time after the child disappeared were blood stains. Her admission was made in advance of a chemical analysis of the garments, which are in the possession of the police. She declared that the blood stains came from a wound her husband had accidentally suffered on his arm during the course of his work. Further than this a three hours "sweating" elicited little information from the woman whose husband the police now seek as the murderer of the little girl.

STATEMENTS OF GIBBONS

Friends of Dead Priest Declare They Are Untrue.

St. Paul, May 31.—A mass meeting of St. Augustine church parishioners was held in the South St. Paul city hall for the purpose of appointing committees to draw up resolutions refuting statements made by Patrick Gibbons as to the character of Rev. E. J. Walsh, murdered by Gibbons early Sunday evening after he had shot and killed his wife, and to endeavor to have business houses in packtown close on the day of Father Walsh's funeral.

The meeting was presided over by Attorney P. H. O'Keefe and was attended by almost every man in St. Augustine's parish. Many spoke of the unimpeachable character of the dead priest and of Mrs. Gibbons and scored the man who murdered them as "a black sheep in the congregation." Several were appointed to remain at the home of Father Walsh until the funeral.

Injured by an Auto.

St. Paul, May 31.—While crossing the corner of Snelling and University avenues Lieutenant H. S. Warren of hook and ladder company No. 7 was seriously injured when an auto driven by Thomas Libby struck him. At his home, where he was taken by Mr. Libby and Officer Joseph Lemire, he was found to have a broken rib and was badly bruised about the back and legs, his right arm and left ankle. He will probably live.

PLEASURE TRIP ENDS FATAALLY

MANY RECORDS ARE BROKEN

Auto Drivers Make Fast Time at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, May 31.—In slashing races at the Indianapolis speedway new records were set for the national championship in stock car classes, which will be contested annually.

A crowd of 5,000 people cheered the drivers on to desperate feats of speed and the companies of militia were pressed hard in controlling the eager spectators who overflowed the grand stands.

Oldfield cut the mile speed record down from 36 flat to 35.6 and the kilometer record from 23.7 to 21.45. He made the former records on the Los Angeles track.

In a wonderfully sustained dash throughout the fifty-mile race, Harroun easily led his rivals and was ahead of the record at 30 and 40 miles and the finish. His time was 42:41. The former record, which was 44:48, Harroun himself had set at Atlanta.

For the national championship, the drivers battled with all their skill, forcing their engines to the limit of their power. The leaders were always bunched in the home stretch, and the contests were not decided until the front wheels of the victors actually had crossed the wire of the timing machine.

L. Chevrolet, in a Buick, winning the 161 to 220 championship for ten miles, set the record down to 9:30 from 9:46, and Dawson (Marmon) wrestling from Harroun the victory in the 231 to 300 class for the five miles, put a new mark at 4:41, seven seconds better than the old time.

Oldfield, with a Knox won both the five and ten-mile championship in the 451 to 600 class. Leading all the way, Oldfield cut down the record for five miles from 4:03 to 4:01.

DELANEY TO TAKE CHARGE

Veteran Trainer Will Take Care of Johnson's Camp.

San Francisco, May 31.—The latest announcement from Jack Johnson's camp is the negotiations for the supervisory services of the veteran trainer, Billy Delaney, have been concluded and that he and Al Kaufman will be installed at Johnson's quarters soon. Johnson says that Delaney has agreed to oversee his training along with the job of managing Kaufman and that from now on until the date of the big fight Delaney will have the say so regarding his preparations for his meeting with Jeffries.

Kaufman, according to Johnson, will continue training for his coming fight with Sam Langford at Johnson's place and he and the negro champion will mutually aid each other in boxing bouts.

Both Delaney and Kaufman are now at Harbin Springs, but are expected to return to San Francisco at once. Johnson is wildly enthusiastic over his success in securing Delaney's services and believes that the veteran's advice will be of vast benefit to him. In a sermon the Rev. George E. Burlingame, pastor of the First Baptist church, read an "open letter" to District Attorney Fickert, calling upon him to forbid the fight.

Flamingoes' Tongues.

The beastly Vitellus, as Gibbons calls him, spent at least six millions of money on table in as many months. He invented, or his cook invented for him, a dish which he designated "the shield of Minerva." One of its principal ingredients was flamingoes' tongues, of which both Pliny and Martial speak in encomiastic terms. Dampier says that the flamingoes have "large tongues, and near the root is a piece of fat which is accounted a great dainty." When Captain Owen was surveying the east coast of Africa his sailors shot down hundreds of these beautiful birds in order, with an extravagance worthy of Vitellus, to make a dish of the tongues alone.

Shakespeare on White House Lawn.

Through the courtesy of Mrs. William H. Taft, who has always been much interested in the playground project, the White House grounds will be open for the performance of Shakespearean plays by the Coburn players June 16 and 17. A chorus of Washington singers will take part. The Washington Playground association will be the beneficiary.

Man and Woman Drowned in Lake Pokagama.

THEIR ROWBOAT CAPSIZES

Party of Four Thrown Into the Water and M. A. Mulvahill and Miss Ruth Backus Perish—Other Members of the Party Cling to the Boat and Drift Ashore—Girl's Fright Cause of Accident.

Ely, Minn., May 31.—A pleasure trip by four young people of this city ended fatally for two, M. A. Mulvahill and Miss Ruth Backus drowning in Lake Pokagama when a rowboat in which they were seated overturned in rough water.

The other members of the party, Harley Caldwell and Miss Anna Becker, clung to the overturned boat and drifted ashore, a short distance from the scene of the accident. Miss Becker was overcome by the excitement and the effect of the cold water, but recovered in a few hours.

A large party is dragging the lake in rowboats, but, owing to its extreme depth, it being in many places 200 feet deep, it is not expected that they will be immediately successful.

It was Miss Backus' fright at the big waves that caused the accident. When the white caps tossed over the gunwales she stood up in the boat and screamed. She lost her balance, and the craft was capsized. Her home is in Big Rapids, Mich. She was a teacher in the Forest Lake school here. Mulvahill was manager of a bottling works in this village. His home is at Arnprior, Can.

Miss Viola Backus, sister of the drowned girl, who is also a teacher in the schools here, was in Superior, Wis., visiting. When she returned home and learned of the accident she became hysterical, and her life is despaired of.

KILLED BY A FINLANDER

Minnesota Settler Shot Through the Heart.

Duluth, May 31.—Joe Dillon, aged forty-five years, was shot and instantly killed at his homestead near Hibbing by a Finlander whose name has not yet been learned. The news was learned when Dillon's wife arrived at Hibbing and notified the authorities of the murder. Deputy Coroner Butchart immediately left for the scene and returned with the body.

According to the story told by the woman the Finlander entered Dillon's place, where it is alleged that he has been conducting a "blind pig." She says that the visitor insulted her and it was resented. Her husband drew a revolver and threatened to shoot the alleged intruder. The Finlander also was armed and, getting the drop on Dillon, shot him through the heart, killing him instantly. The woman is held by the authorities pending the coroner's inquest.

DECISION IS UNPOPULAR

Referee Calls McFarland-Welsh Fight a Draw.

London, May 31.—Packey McFarland of Chicago and Freddie Welsh, the British lightweight champion, fought a twenty-round draw before the National Sporting club. The fight was for a purse of $6,500 and a side bet of $1,000.

McFarland had much the better of the bout. He led all the way, knocking his opponent against the ropes repeatedly and forcing the fighting in every round.

The verdict of the referee was received with much hostility. Welsh was the favorite at the opening of the contest at 7 to 4, but before the fight was half over the sympathy of the crowd was wholly with the American.

Dorothy Russell Elopes.

San Francisco, May 31.—That Dorothy Russell, daughter of Lillian Russell, the actress, eloped six weeks ago with Robin W. Dunsmuir, son of Lieutenant Governor Dunsmuir of British Columbia, and that the couple are now living in Mazatan, is the report brought here by the steamship San Juan, which arrived from Central American ports.

Heavy Damage by Fires.

Winnipeg, May 31.—Immense forest fires have been raging the past six weeks around Lesser Slave lake in the Peace river country. Millions of dollars' damage has already been done, and unless the fires soon are under control the timber districts in that region will be wiped out before many weeks.

Long Run For Armed Automobiles.

The automobile gun detachment of the Northwestern Military academy at Highland Park, a north shore suburb of Chicago, is arranging for a test run of 3,000 miles from Cincinnati to Dallas, Tex., between June 15 and Aug. 1. The detachment is composed of automobiles equipped with automatic rapid fire guns all ready for action. The test will be one of the first of the kind made. Permission to cross the various states is now being secured.

DAY GENERALLY OBSERVED

Exercises Held in Memory of Civil War Heroes.

St. Paul, May 31.—Memorial day was observed in St. Paul according to customs which have become fixed through nearly fifty years of annual repetition. The exercises of the forenoon were held in the various cemeteries of the city, where the graves of departed soldiers were decorated with flowers and flags.

The living soldiers were honored in the afternoon in a civic and military parade, which was perfect in every detail and which was witnessed and cheered by thousands along the line of march. Later in the afternoon memorial services were held at the Auditorium, where other thousands listened to an excellent programme of oratory, recitation and music—all of a patriotic character.

One feature of the day passed almost unnoticed. After the parade and while crowds were hurrying toward the Auditorium a little group of women guided a rowboat from Harriet island to the center of the Mississippi and strewed the water with wild flowers in memory of the sailors who fought and died in the Civil war. The custom is common in seaport cities and on the Great Lakes, but Minnesota's contribution to the naval forces of the war was small.

The day was fittingly observed in cities and towns all over the country.

Boy Accidentally Killed.

Aberdeen, S. D., May 31.—The six-year-old son of F. F. Benz of Herreid,
S. D., was shooting gophers with a 22-caliber rifle, when the weapon was accidentally discharged, the ball entering the child's abdomen, causing his death a few hours later.

Sharks' Eggs.

The eggs of fishes are usually small,
soft and inconspicuous. The most remarkable point about them is the extraordinary number laid by the individual. A single cod lays as many as 9,000,000 eggs. Sharks lay eggs which are large in size, few as to numbers and are deposited singly instead of in masses. These eggs consist of a dark colored leathery envelope and are usually adorned with frills, horns or long twisted tendrils. These appendages serve the purpose of keeping the egg case supported among the branches of seaweeds, thus preserving the embryo from the damage it would sustain were the egg carried hither and thither by the waves.—Scientific American.

The Proper Place to Look.

During the moving a portrait of one of the ancestors of the Brent family had got lost. No one could find it at either the old or the new house, and there was great consternation. Willam Brent, aged six, was offered a "treat," value not announced, for any hint that would lead to the return of the missing grandfather. One noon he came home from school breathless.
"I think, mamma," he said—"I think we can find Grandfather Trent's picture."
"Where?" asked his mother.
"Downtown," said William confidently. "I saw a notice on a shop window, and it said 'Paintings Restored Within.'"—Youth's Companion.

Mount Etna.

Etna, the "burning mountain," is the mightiest volcano in Europe. It is 10,800 feet high. If you wished to walk round its base you would have to walk ninety miles. It slopes steady-ly on all sides up to the highest crater, which is nearly a mile broad.

IRRESOLUTION.

Irresolution is a worse vice than rashness. He that shoots best may sometimes miss the mark, but he that shoots not at all can never hit it.

Irresolution loosens all the joints of a state. Like an ague, it shakes not this nor that limb, but all the body is at once in a fit.

The irresolute man is lited from one place to another, so hatched nothing, but adds all his actions.
—Owen Feltham.

A Memorable Ride.

The most memorable ride in English history was that of Sir Arthur Owen which placed the Hanoverian dynasty on the throne of Great Britain. The act of settlement by which in 1701 parliament elected the house of Hanover to the British throne was passed by only one vote, and this casting vote was given by Sir Arthur Owen, the member of parliament for Pembrokeshire. He arrived at Westminster, dusty and travel worn, only just in time to record his vote, having ridden with furious haste from Wales for the purpose on relays of horses kept at all the posting houses along the route. To that ride Britain owes its Georgian era; hence its Queen Victoria and her descendants.

As Others See Her.

Her Sweetheart—The dearest little woman in all the world.
Mother—If she would only regard my wishes more.
Father—She's cost enough to bring up, still—
Brother—She'd be all right if she'd take a little advice from me.
Optimist—Thank heaven for putting such a glorious creature on earth!
Old Friend—She's a fine girl, but she is changeable.
Disappointed Lover—She talks too much.
Rival—Her figure's all right, thanks
to her dressmaker.
Cynic—Pooh! She's like all the rest.
Maid—I know why she appears so beautiful.

Precept and Example.

"Colonel, that was an admirable speech you made at the club the other evening on the obligations of citizenship. I've been intending to tell you so ever since I heard it. We need more of that kind of talk nowadays.
But what are you looking so gloomy about this morning, colonel? No bad news, I hope."
"Dash it all, yes! I've been drawn on a jury!"—Chicago Tribune.

CONCENTRATION.

The weakest living creature, by concentrating his powers on a single object, can accomplish something.
The strongest, by dispensing his over many, may fail to accomplish anything. The drop by continually falling bores its passage through the hardest rock. The hasty torrent rushes over it with hideous uproar and leaves no trace behind.—
Carlyle.

FROM ALBANY TO NEW YORK

Glenn H. Curtiss Travels in an Aeroplane.

WINS A PRIZE OF $10,000

Aviator Also Exceeds all Records for Speed on the Distance Covered. Flies One Hundred and Thirty-seven Miles in Two Hours and Thirty-two Minutes—Course of Flight Very Dangerous.

New York, May 30.—Glenn H. Curtiss flew from Albany to New York city in an aeroplane, winning the $10,000 prize offered by the New York World. He covered the distance of 137 miles in two hours and thirty-two minutes and came to earth as lightly as a pigeon. His average speed for the distance, 54.05 miles an hour, surpassed any record ever made by an aeroplane in long distance flight, and in its entirety his feat eclipses anything man has attempted in a heavier than air machine.

The start was made from Albany at 7:30 o'clock in the morning under weather conditions as nearly perfect as the most fastidious aviator could demand. One hour and twenty-three minutes later he had made his stopping place near Poughkeepsie, where there was an hour's intermission. Resuming his flight at 9:25 he sped southward and landed within the boundary of Manhattan island at 10:35. Only 100 yards north of the point on which his craft settled stretched Spuyten-duyvel creek, separating Manhattan island from the mainland.

Would Have Been in Vain.

Had he failed to cross this, his flight would have been in vain, but as he swept over it, the prize was his. Hence to Governor's island, his task was but a whim of triumph and the concluding lap of a race already won.

Paulhan's flight from London to Lanchester, 186 miles, exceeded the Curtiss feat in distance, but not in speed and danger. The Frenchman's average was 44.3 miles an hour, and he flew him lay meadow land. Curtiss followed the winding course of the Hudson, with jutting headlands, wooded slopes and treacherous palisades, swung high over the great bridge Poughkeepsie, dipped at times with fifty feet of the river's broad surface, and jockeyed like a falcon at the rns.

Only once did his craft show signs of rebellion. This was off Storm King, at West Point, where at a height of nearly 1,000 feet, a treacherous gust struck his planes. The machine tipped like a rock for forty feet and edged perilously. But Curtiss, always alert, kept his head and his seat and adroit manipulation of his levers, aught renewed equilibrium.

WITH DIFFERENT FEELINGS

Hughes Men and Machine Men Look to Return of Roosevelt.

Albany, N. Y., May 30.—In considering the probable outcome of the extra session called by Governor Hughes for June 20, Hughes supporters and machine men are looking forward to the homecoming of Theodore Roosevelt with different feelings.

Hughes men expect Mr. Roosevelt to say the word that will compel the opponents of direct primaries to retreat from their positions and pass a measure acceptable to the governor and people. And that is just what the machine men fear.

Mr. Roosevelt will arrive here on Saturday, June 18, two days before the convening of the legislature. That excellent judge of public opinion and masterful counsellor of erring politicians, Hughes men say, can be counted on to size up the situation in those two days and act in a way that will preserve complete public confidence in the Republican party.

MRS. TAFT'S FATHER SAID TO BE DYING

Aged Ohio Lawyer Slowly Sinking at Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, May 30.—Mrs. William Howard Taft, wife of President Taft, is coming to Cincinnati from Pittsburgh, where she went from Washington, and will be taken immediately to the bedside of her sick father, John W. Herron, eighty-two years old, veteran attorney and prominent citizen of Cincinnati.

It is reported that Mr. Herron is sinking slowly and word was taken to the White House immediately. The president is so busy with various matters that he cannot get away. Mrs. Taft promptly wired back that she would come early this week. It was her intention to remain in Pittsburgh until Wednesday morning, but later was told she had better come as quickly as possible.

It is understood that Mrs. Taft will remain at her father's bedside for the next ten days, and possibly will not be able to leave him for even a longer period. His age and natural weakness have often caused Mrs. Taft to break away from friends to come to his side. Mr. Herron is being carefully cared for by his sons.

FOR RESIGNING OFFICES

Officers of the Fraternal Tribunes Were Paid.

Moline, Ill., May 30.—All the details of the manner in which the officers of the Fraternal Tribunes, alleged to have been paid $5,000 for resigning their offices, delivered the insurance order into the control of the men now accused by State's Attorney L. M. Magill of Rock Island county and J. E. McBride of Chicago with having looted the reserve fund of the society of $57,000, were told by Attorney H. A. Weld of Rock Island.

Weld's statement is the first narrative of the deal by which the merger of the Fraternal Tribunes and the American Home Circle was accomplished. Weld was supreme treasurer of the Tribunes at the time of the merger. His statement, as given, was corroborated by Robert Rexdale, who was supreme secretary at the time of the merger.

Weld says he was paid $6,000 to resign his office. He said Rexdale was paid $8,000 and afterward was elected vice supreme tribune under the merger and given $2,500 a year salary, the same as he had been drawing as supreme secretary.

Both Weld and Rexdale have testified before the Rock Island grand jury.

Dumas' Onion Soup.

Onion soup is often liked by people who disdain the savory herb in any other form. There is no doubt of the wholesomeness of the onion, and those who have never tried the soup are recommended to use this celebrated recipe of the elder Dumas: Take, for three pints of soup, four Bermuda onions or eight common white ones, minced them and fry to a golden brown in two tablespoonsful of butter. Pour in two quarts of water, season with pepper and salt and boil until the onions are quite soft. Beat the yolks of three eggs, mix with the soup and pour the mixture over finger slices of toasted bread. Milk may be used instead of water in this soup.

CONGRESSMEN ARE ALL AT SEA

Chary of Announcing Any Programme at Present.

VOTE ON THE RAILROAD BILL

Men in Charge of It in the Senate Thought That It Would Be Taken Last Week, but Now They Will Not Say When They Expect a Vote. House Republicans Deadlocked on Postal Savings Bank Bill.

Washington, May 30.—The plans of the Republican leaders in congress have gone awry so many times in the past several weeks that they are chary of announcing any programme for the remaining days of the present session or of speculating on how long that period is likely to be.

In the senate the men in charge of the railroad bill would have staked their reputations upon the certainty that there would be a final vote upon it before the end of last week, but now they will not say when they expect a vote to be taken. In the house the Republican caucus continued for three nights in session for the purpose of perfecting the postal savings bank bill, but an agreement was not reached and one is not in sight. The caucus will be resumed next Wednesday night.

The situation in connection with the railroad bill was complicated by the introduction of an amendment relating to mergers of railroads which was offered by Senator Brown of Nebraska just before the adjournment on Friday. The provision contains all of the prohibitive features of the original Section 12 and none of the advantages for the railroads contained in the section struck out.

So involved did the situation become that the leaders hastily adjourned the session, expecting to resume consideration of the bill Saturday, but the speech by Senator Lorimer prevented such action. The senators in charge of the bill do not want the Brown amendment, but it may be difficult for them to defeat it.

May Result in More Concessions.

It is not unlikely that it will result in further concessions from the leaders to the insurgents, which course has been pursued heretofore when the supporters of the bill have got into a "tight hole."

The policy of Senators Elkins and Aldrich in the past several days has been to accept amendments in order to get the bill into conference. The action of Senator Elkins in accepting without a roll call the La Follette amendment placing telephone, telegraph and cable companies within the scope of the interstate commerce laws indicated the policy which may be followed henceforth. It may be that the Brown amendment will be accepted in the same manner in view of the fact that the house eliminated the merger section from its bill and would probably insist upon the rejection of the Brown amendment in conference.

The railroad bill will be taken up again by the senate on Tuesday and the final vote may be had on that day, although there is no certainty about it. There is a contest between advocates of statehood and conservation measures as to what class of legislation shall next be considered. The supporters of the public land withdrawals bill will not give way to the statehood measure without a fight.

Few Republican senators are anxious to put the statehood bill through at the present session. They think the differences between the senate and the house bills are irreconcilable and that it would be a waste of time to send the measures to conference.

Fatal Auto Accident.

Santa Rosa, Cal., May 30.—Mrs. Frank Bond of San Francisco was drowned in the Russian river near Booneville when the automobile in which she and her husband, their daughter Hazel and R. R. Strange of San Francisco were riding plunged over a fifteen-foot embankment. Mrs. Bond was caught under the machine. The others were thrown free and escaped with bruises.

Lord May Mary Widow.

London, May 30.—Certain circles of international society are gossiping over the evident attachment of Lord Robert Innesker for Mrs. Robert Graham, a wealthy widow of San Francisco, and it is said an engagement may be reported shortly. Mrs. Graham is reputed to be worth over $1,000,000. Lord Robert is the younger brother of the Duke of Roxburgh, who was married to Miss May Gecet of New York.

Ball Games Fatal to Two.

Cleveland, May 30.—Baseball was responsible for two deaths in Cleveland. Frank Kostichy, fifteen years old, was struck on the temple by a pitched ball and instantly killed. Walter J. Garson, thirty-four years old, was the second victim. While running bases in a game in a vacant lot he burst a blood vessel and died in a few minutes.

Brainerd Business College

The need and the value of a good business training and education in this day is beyond a doubt. To be successful and to reach the pinnacle of success you must build for yourself a good foundation on the bedrock of knowledge of the commercial world and its ways.

These scholarships will entitle the winners of them to a course in either shorthand or commercial departments or both. It is impossible to estimate the worth or value of a good education. As the old saying is, it depends upon what kind of a person gets the education. A thousand dollar individual with a ten-thousand dollar education is still a thousand dollar individual. That's not the fault of the education but the individual. Everyone in this world is what they make themselves. Any person who starts out in life depending upon good luck or fortune for the development of opportunities makes the work of life a mere matter of chance and does not deserve success and does not get it.

A New Idea in Medicine

Which accounts for the enormous success of DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE PILLS

To tear down the diseased tissues was the old principle of medicine. To cure by building up new, healthful tissue is the new method.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are a specific illustration of the new method, for they cure by increasing the quantity and quality of the blood, by creating new nerve force, and by overcoming weakness and disease with new vigor, new energy and new vitality. The time to begin using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills is when strength fails you and you find yourself out of sorts and losing health and vigor.

It is easy then to get back to normal condition by using this great restorative treatment. The blood is enriched, the nerves revitalized, new firm flesh and tissue is formed, and you feel the snap of new vigor as it is being instilled into your system.

Don't wait for nervous prostration or paralysis, but keep the system at high water mark. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills, 50 cts. a box, all dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

you how it is cheaper to buy our high class building materials than it is to purchase the poorer kind. We can point to buildings built with our materials that never need repairs. We can point to some others that need repairs all the time. But they were not built of our materials. See where real cheapness lies?

GIVE it every possible chance to last long and to look its best. If you build well—paint well.

If it is important to carefully select the building materials for your house—it is just as important to use all care in getting the paint that will protect those materials.

Red Seal

Pure White Lead ("Dutch Boy Painter" trade-mark) is the standard house paint. Pure white lead earned that term, "standard" because it proved itself the greatest known protector of wood against weather, and because as an ornamental paint it proved to give the smoothest finish. That is why good painters like to use it. The painter mixes it with pure linseed oil at the time of painting and makes any color, shade or tint you want.

The house that is "white-leaded" is the house that's painted right.

WILLIAM J. CONNERS.

Democratic Boss Wants to Name His Successor

CONNERS IS HARD AT WORK

Democratic Boss Wants to Name His Successor.

New York, May 30.—Even though William J. Connors has to quit as chairman of the Democratic state committee there is a strong possibility that he may be able to outwit the Murphy faction by being permitted to name his successor. That possibility developed as Mr. Connors left the city for up state where he is going to confer with the leaders friendly to him and find out just how much power he can gather. He intends sounding the sentiment thoroughly and he will arrange either to have his full support at the meeting of the committee at the Hoffman House next Thursday afternoon or bring their proxies back to the city.

Mr. Connors plans to upset the opposition that has been formed against him by the Murphy Democratic State league wing.

While he had nothing to say on the prospective contest over the selection of his successor it is known that he does not mean to pass into political oblivion without making a fight against it.

The state chairman has gained renewed confidence on his own position by a promise of support that has been made to him by an outside faction of the party. If this support materializes he believes he will stand a good chance of having something to say about the naming of his successor.

Two Farmers Drowned.

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 30.—Louis Kattler and Carl Haab, who were wealthy farmers living near here, drowned while fishing in Pleasant lake, fifteen miles from Ann Arbor.

Hired Man Shoots Farmer.

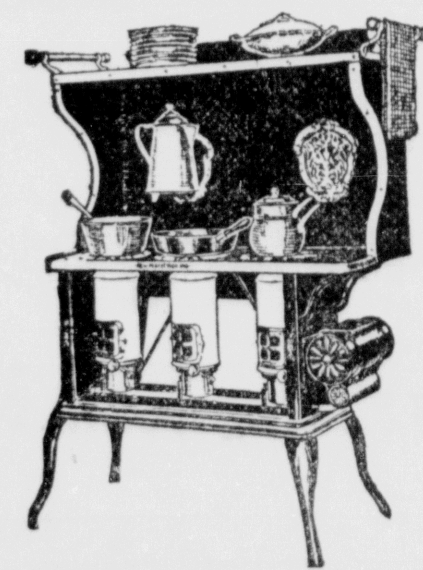

Farmington, Minn., May 30.—A shooting affray took place at Delliver, Ia., sixteen miles from here, which will probably result in the death of J. W. McCloons, a well known farmer. A few days ago he discharged a hired man, about eighteen years old. The young man called at McCloons' place and after a few words drew a revolver and fired. The bullet struck McCloons in the face and lodged in the back of the brain. No hopes are entertained for his recovery. The assailant was arrested and lodged in jail at Estherville. He claims self-defense.

Veteran Shoots Debtor.

Lima, O., May 30.—Because his neighbor, whom he had known for fifty years, refused to pay a grocery bill of $35, Sam Ferguson, sixty-six years old, a Civil war veteran, shot him on his doorstep. Richard McGriff, the dead man, was sixty-three years old, and a life long friend of Ferguson.

KILLS HIS WIFE AND A PRIEST

South St. Paul Man Commits Double Murder.

ON RETURN FROM SANITARIUM

Prominent Live Stock Commission Merchant Shoots His Wife and Then, Leaving Her Body Lying on the Kitchen Floor, Drives to the Residence of Father Walsh and Murders Him.

St. Paul, May 30.—In a fit of insane jealous rage Patrick J. Gibbons, a prominent live stock commission merchant of South St. Paul, shot and instantly his wife, Nellie McGowan Gibbons, and a few minutes later also shot and killed Father E. J. Walsh, pastor of St. Augustine Catholic church, South St. Paul, afterward giving himself up to the police.

Gibbons, who has been a well known resident of South St. Paul for almost twenty years, had been for the past week in Minneapolis at the Lawrence sanitarium. He telephoned his wife to go to Minneapolis to return home with him. They made the return trip on a street car in company with one of the attendants from the sanitarium.

At South St. Paul the attendant was left at the hotel, and the couple went to their home in the west part of the town. Within fifteen minutes after they had reached home Gibbons had shot his wife twice, then leaving her body lying on the kitchen floor he re-entered the buggy in which they had driven from the street car and drove directly to the residence of Father Walsh, which is immediately in the rear of St. Augustine church.

He called the priest to the door, and after a few moments' excited conversation fired two shots, both of which took effect in the head of his victim. As the priest staggered and fell through the door leading from the hall to his study Gibbons calmly walked out of the house and down the street toward the police station, leaving his horse and buggy standing in front of the residence.

On the way down the street he met one of his own sons, a boy about twelve years old.

"Son," he said to him, "I have just shot the priest."

The boy laughed, thinking his father jesting. As he passed the priest's house, however, he recognized the family buggy and, seized with fear, ran home to find the body of his mother lying in a pool of blood.

There were no witnesses to either shooting. In the house at the time was only one of the seven children, a little girl ten years old. She heard her father say, "I will kill you," and ran screaming for her older sister, who was at a neighbor's. Scarcely was she out of the room before she heard two shots in rapid succession.

Second Shot Proves Fatal.

Mrs. Gibbons had entered the house on her return from Minneapolis and had immediately begun preparations for the evening meal. She was standing at a table slicing a ham when her husband walked up to her and fired almost point blank into her face. The first shot inflicted only a flesh wound over the left cheekbone, although the face was badly powder burned. It is believed that the woman whirled around in terror, seeking escape through the door, and that as she did so he fired the second time, the bullet striking her in the back of the head near the base of the brain, going entirely through the head and coming out through the left cheek.

On his arrival at the home of the priest, where Gibbons next went, he called Father Walsh to the door and, standing in the hallway, the two men talked in a rather loud tone for a few moments. Father Walsh's housekeeper, Bridget Pembroke, was clearing away the evening meal, as the priest had just finished eating his supper. She heard the tones of the men and became alarmed, although she did not dare interfere. Suddenly she heard the two shots and ran screaming to the home of a neighbor.

Gibbons, after leaving the house and passing his son, walked down the hill toward the city hall and police station and met Officer Frank Day.

"I have shot the priest," he said to the officer, who at once placed him under arrest and took him to the police station. Gibbons made no further explanation of his actions at that time, nor did he then confess to shooting his wife. He was placed in the county jail in St. Paul.

WERE PROPERLY ORGANIZED

North Dakota Supreme Court Decides County Cases.

Bismarck, N. D., May 30.—The state supreme court has decided both Renville and Burke counties were properly organized out of the old ward at the last general election.

The case was before the court before Burke county was first declared organized and Renville knocked out. The case hung on a legality of the vote at Kenmare and in a former decision the supreme court threw out 200 votes, but in the later case all were thrown out.

At the June primaries in Kenmare 200 votes were cast and at the division election 600.

In making the decision the court holds there was not registration and therefore could be no votes legally cast.

LORIMER REMAINS SILENT

Refuses to Discuss Bribery Scandal Involving His Name.

Chicago, May 30.—United States Senator William Lorimer arrived here and departed a few hours later and his whereabouts is a mystery. The senator positively refused to discuss any phase of the senatorial bribery scandal involving his name.

State Senator Broderick, who was indicted by the Sangamon county grand jury following Holst's confession, also has disappeared.

Will Dedicate Capitol.

Pierre, S. D., May 30.—The date of dedication of the new state capitol will probably be some time in the last days of June. The exact date will be fixed within a short time. In connection with the dedication, Governor Vessey and A. E. Chamberlain of the farmers' institute work have been arranging for a state conservation meeting.

Patriot Electrocuted.

Pittsburg, May 30.—The patriotism of John Gierlowski, a middle aged Pole, has cost him his life. While trying to hoist the Stars and Stripes for Memorial day on the roof of Turner hall in Glendale, a copper wire on which the flag was strung came in contact with a live light wire. The shock killed Gierlowski.

How Weasels Carry Eggs.

One morning a weasel was surprised crossing the public highway leading from Jedburgh into Oxnam Water. It was observed to be carrying something under its chin and pressed against its slender neck, and when a collie dog belonging to one of the onlookers made a dash at the little creature it dropped its burden—a hen's egg—and, gliding under the roadside hedge, disappeared in the woodland. On being picked up the egg was found to be without a crack. The nearest poultry run is about 300 yards distant from the place where the weasel was intercepted.—Scotsman.

1,000 SCHOOL CHILDREN MARCH

The Grandest Memorial Day Services the City Has Seen in Last Ten Years

Decoration day was celebrated with such unanimity, enthusiasm and patriotism on Monday as it has not been celebrated in the history of Brainerd for the last ten years or more. A clear, warm day offered ideal weather conditions for a parade so that the children from the smallest six year-old to the high school seniors turned out in full force.

The services commenced at nine o'clock in the morning when the Brainerd City band, a quartette of the Young Men's Glee Club, the Boy's and Girls Glee Club with Francis Newman Dial as musical director, the firing squad, Woman's Relief Corps, Pap Thomas Post G. A. R., and citizens, marched to the cemetery. Here the usual ritualistic ceremonies were performed. The boys and girls of the schools sang songs and assisted in decorating the graves.

At 11:45 a. m. a free dinner was served in Elk's hall to the G. A. R. and families, the city band, and those taking part in the ceremonies of the day, by the ladies of the Relief Corps.

At 1:30 p. m. the children of the various schools gathered at the Washington school, this being the place for the formation of the parade. Headed by Chief of Police Quinn and Captain Hurley and the Brainerd City band, followed by Col. J. C. Congdon and his mounted aides, Kirby Smith, Bobby Elder, George Day, Arthur Gardner and Raymond Fredstrom the parade swung down Oak street to Sixth street, thence to Laurel and followed the line of march as previously announced.

The Washington high school accompanied by Supt. W. C. Cobb, L. C. McCarthy, and other teachers, marched 70 strong and carried four flags and numerous pennants.

Following them came a feature of the parade, 14 high school girls carrying a large flag.

The Washington grade school was next with its principal Miss Mitchell and teachers and 120 pupils in line. This section carried two large flags and two pennants.

Rev. Father O'Mahoney and the St. Francis Parochial school with 160 pupils in line, carrying two large flags and numerous pennants lead the next position in the parade.

Then came the Whittier school, Miss Barrett marshalled over a hundred pupils who carried three large flags and three pennants.

The Lowell school, with Miss Lowery, principal, in command had 175 boys and girls marching and carried three large flags and six pennants.

The Lincoln school, Miss Josephine Lindberg principal, had 150 pupils in line. They walked in pairs each little boy marching with a girl school-mate. They carried three large flags and three pennants.

The Harrison school with its principal, Miss Emma K. Hanson, had 200 pupils in the parade. They carried three large flags and several pennants.

W. E. Erickson, a member of the Board of Education, and the writer checked up the pupils as they passed and they numbered over 1000. It was certainly the largest parade of school children that this city has witnessed in the last ten years. All the children carried small flags. The girls were clad in white dresses. It was a most inspiring sight to see the long lines of children, with their tiny American flags and the larger colors carried by the divisions, and there were little fellows too young to attend school who shed real tears because they couldn't march.

Near the opera house the ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps assumed the lead in the procession, followed by the veterans in the most prominent position in the parade. We are indebted to Supt. J. A. Wilson for the names of these comrades, a list which will be treasured by all the comrades and their friends. Supt. Wilson states that as far as he was able to learn the following named comrades were present and took part in the ceremonies. Some may have been missed, but the list is very nearly complete:

David Dykeman, 3d N. Y. Cav. Elijah Adams, 157 N. Y. Inf. B. S. Mallory, 12th O. Bat. H. G. Ingersoll, 18th Wis. Inf. Jos. Britton, 3d Wis. Inf. Olney Edwards, 29th Wis. Inf. J. C. Congdon, 86th N. Y. Inf. Chas. C. Laurel, 14th Conn. Inf. Peter Early, 2nd N. Y. Cav. J. D. Gabion, 19th U. S. Reg. Ed. Kimball, 1st Minn. H. Art. Wm. Bartlett, 1st Minn. H. Art. T. E. Smith, 26th N. Y. Cav. Goodell, 1st Vermont Inf. John Benson, 26th N. Y. Inf. J. Dickerson, 2nd Iowa Inf. Wm. Meekins, 11th Penn. Cav. Jacob Desoin, 2nd Ill. Cav. Albert Fox, 25th Mich. Inf. G. W. Adair, 86th O. V. I. I. T. Dean, 1st West Va. Cav. N. M. Paine, 111 N. Y. Inf. Abel Spohn, Service not learned J. A. Wilson, 86th O. Inf.

The children counter-marched, the veterans and the Woman's Relief Corps were given prominent seats in the opera house and that edifice was soon filled by citizens and school children.

On the stage were seated Hon. A. J. Halsted, who presided over the meeting, Supt. W. C. Cobb, W. A. Fleming, county attorney, Rev. Hilton, Rev. Father O. Mahoney, Judge C. W. Stanton, Miss Julia Wilson, Mrs. Frances Newman Dial and the high school chorus.

After a short introductory speech by presiding officer A. J. Halsted, the Brainerd City band played "Uncle Sam, a medley of national airs.

Rev. C. B. Hilton delivered the invocation in which he invoked a blessing upon the little band which had struggled for unity and freedom and made this a nation which stands for God's righteousness and God's truth.

Miss Julia Wilson recited Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg address. The girl spoke clearly and distinctly so that every word of that incomparable address was heard throughout the house.

"Taps," was sung by the Brainerd high school, the leader of the band blowing the bugle calls.

Supt. W. C. Cobb was introduced to the audience by Mr. Halsted. Prof. Cobb's remarks were listened to with great attention. He mentioned the fact that in many places Decoration day assumed more of a festive nature instead of what it was intended to be, one of a memorial nature only. Others wished to make of it a day of recreation. He asked the question, "What will become of Memorial Day when the G. A. R. are gone?", and answered it by saying that loyal and patriotic citizens would see that this day did not wane in enthusiasm or patriotism. "Every country," said he, "has been called upon to make its contribution of human sacrifice. We desire our children to learn something of the cost of freedom, of the sacrifice and death involved to secure this heritage to succeeding generations. Two dates in history are of great interest to us, May 23, 1865 and May 30, 1910. They are of peculiar significance. In 1865 the Civil War was over and the Stars and Stripes were again floating over a free and united country. A million footsore veterans marched in review thanking God that at last the war was over. In 1910 we have another marching column. But who is in the procession today? At the head are the same veterans of '61 separated by nearly a half a century of eventful history."

"The army of the north was an army of school boys, for the age of enlistment scarcely averaged 18 years. A baptism of fire was all that was necessary to transform this boyish army into a thunderbolt of war that enabled Sherman to march to the sea."

"Boys are a factor to be considered with in 1910. Are they ready to die in 1910 as they were in the early days? These boys of today would willingly lay their lives upon the altar of freedom. They are full of pent up energy." Some of Prof. Cobb's epigrams were of great force and beauty. "Boys are full of pent up energy. The school house and home are the bulwarks of our liberty. America plants her faith in a devoted citizenship. In every crisis the right leader has appeared at right time. God gave us a Lincoln, a Washington

MOSES DEROCHEER DEAD

For Almost 30 Years a Member of the Police Force—He Was a Good Officer

Moses F. DeRocheer, a member of the Brainerd police force for about 30 years, died Sunday morning at eight o'clock, at his residence at 708 south Seventh street. He had been sick with dropsy for the past three months.

The deceased was born in Waterville, Maine, on June 2, 1842. He came to Minneapolis when he was 17 years old and worked on the dam being built there. He was married in that city to Miss Flora Gonyea and to them were born four children, Charles DeRocheer, of Paradise, Mont., Moses DeRocheer, Jr., of Brainerd, Mrs. Albert Halvorson, of Bemidji, and Mrs. B. H. Stevens, of Everett, Wash. The family moved to Brainerd in the early eighties and he worked here for Farnham, Lovejoy, Davis & Co., acting as foreman when the booms were put in and the dam was built. He also worked a long time for J. J. Howe & Co.

Upon the death of his first wife he married in later years, Miss Elizabeth Dobbrott and they have resided in Brainerd continuously since then. To them three children were born, Leona, Raymond and James. He was first appointed a policeman by Mayor James S. Gardner in 1883 and served two terms under Mayor Gardner. "He made a good officer and a faithful one," said Mr. Gardner today when mentioning some of the good work the deceased had done. He spoke English and French and several Indian dialects. In 1884 he was shot while making an arrest. One of his exploits in the early history of the town was the arrest of 25 bad men in West Brainerd. Single handed he arrested them all and marched them to jail, a distance of a mile.

The deceased was chief two different times and captain of the force several times. He was a member of the Red Men order and also a member of hose company, No. 2, of the Brainerd fire department for many years. The funeral will be held at nine o'clock on Wednesday morning at St. Francis Catholic church. Interment will be in Evergreen cemetery. All his children will be present, and a brother, James DeRocheer, is also expected from Boston, Mass. The sympathy of their many friends is extended the family in their sad bereavement.

DULUTH CONFERENCE

Twelfth Annual Meeting of Congregational Churches Held Here Tuesday and Wednesday

The 12th annual meeting of the Duluth conference of Congregational churches meets Tuesday and Wednesday at the First Congregational church in Brainerd.

The program for Tuesday included a praise and prayer service at 2:30 organization and business work at 2:45. At three o'clock Rev. O. A. Granholm, of Biwabik delivered an address on, "Our Work Among Swedish and Finnish Immigrants." Rev. A. G. Parks, of Walker, spoke on, "The Sunday School and the Church. Laying Foundation in Newly Settled Communities." This was followed by a discussion. Rev. Alexander Milne, of Duluth, delivered an address on "The Religious Life of Charles Darwin."

The evening's program includes an address at half past seven by Rev. Thomas W. Barbour, Ph. D., of Cass Lake. He takes as his subject "God's Challenge to the Churches." Rev. H. R. Harris, of Biwabik, will deliver the annual sermon. A communion service will then be given, followed by an offering for ministerial relief.

MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES

and a Grant. Great leaders are the people." In concluding he stated, "Our school system was built by the same hands that fashioned our government, for free school and free democracy are inseparable."

The high school chorus sang "The Flag."

The Hon. R. C. Dunn was introduced by Mr. Hasted, as a citizen who was well known to this audience, for he had often been in Brainerd and addressed Brainerd audiences. He had served as auditor of this state for years and as editor of a newspaper was known to all the state.

Mr. Dunn spoke slowly and deliberately so that every word of his oration was heard by the immense audience. He spoke of the beautiful custom of Memorial Day being first observed in the south. John A. Logan, a splendid type of the volunteer soldiers, first designated May 30th as Memorial Day. Since then every northern state has designated this as a legal holiday. State laws have been passed providing that no public business shall be transacted on that day.

Referring to the war he stated that the election of Lincoln caused the storm which had been gathering for years to burst. The primary cause of the war was slavery. President Lincoln in a letter to his friend, Horace Greeley stated, "My primary object is to save the union." So the war was fought for the preservation of the union.

"It is proper," said Mr. Dunn, "that Minnesota shall reverence its dead. When the flag was lowered in 1861 at Fort Sumter, Minnesota was the first to tender 1000 men to preserve the union. Minnesota was the youngest state for it had been admitted but three years previously. Nevertheless Minnesota in this period of storm and stress furnished more than 25,000 men in the Indian and Civil wars. Minnesota's contributions embraced 11 regiments of infantry, 2 regiments of cavalry, 2 battalions of cavalry, 3 batteries of artillery, 2 companies of sharpshooters, 1 regiment of mounted rangers.

Few if any, northern states made a better showing in proportion to population.

While the great civil war was fought Minnesota had Indian troubles of her own at home "where your thrifty city of Brainerd, with its 10,000 inhabitants now stands," continued the orator, "I do not believe there was a single white settler in the early sixties. In my own home town of Princeton, then on the frontier, a stockade was built, and the settlers—what few there were, as many of the young men had gone to the south—prepared to defend themselves instead of fleeing to St. Paul and Minneapolis as others did. Under her circumstances it must be admitted that Minnesota did her full duty in the civil war."

He referred to the brave First regiment of Minnesota, than which there was no more gallant body of men in either army. The First Minnesota was the senior three year regiment in the service. At Bull Run it received its first baptism of fire. The Minnesota boys were placed in an exposed position but held their ground until ordered to retire, which they did in good order. In this action the regiment lost 49 killed, 107 wounded and 34 missing.

At Gettysburg the First won imperishable renown. At a critical period in the second day's fight the First stood firm in a gap in the line. Hancock tried to rally the demoralized men, then called on the Minnesotans to charge the Confederate lines. With Colville at the head the 262 men charged and broke the first line of the Confederates and saved the day. "No more gallant deed is recorded in history," said Hancock, of the 262 men who made that memorable charge, 215 were stretched upon the hillside and 47 were still in line. Not a man was missing.

At Fredericksburg the First also did valiant service. The Second marched with Sherman to the sea and distinguished itself at Chickamauga. The Fifth saw distinguished service at Corinth and at Nashville. In the final charge at Nashville, the 5th, 7th, 9th and 10th Minnesota regiments participated. The 3rd had trouble at one time but redeemed itself in Arkansas.

The first victories in the west were won by western men. When Grant was placed at the head there was no more retreating. Thomas' splendid victory at Nashville, Sherman's march to the sea, and Grant's constant hammering broke the Confederacy. Then came Appomattox and the end. It was a war between Americans and brave men always respect brave men.

"Imitating the example of their greatest military chieftain, Gen. Robert E. Lee, the great majority of men who wore the gray accepted the results of the war in good faith.

There were and are some fire eaters in the south, who were and are irreconcilable but they are a woeful minority. The man who surveyed the route for the Northern Pacific railroad through your beautiful "City of the Pines," was a southern brigadier. One of the most courteous and dignified members of the Minnesota legislature of 1893, was an ex-confederate, and also ex-mayor of Minneapolis, Philip B. Winston, his brother was the Democratic candidate for lieutenant-governor of the state in 1904. B. F. Nelson, another ex-Confederate, is one of Minneapolis' most prosperous and highly respected citizens and is also identified with large manufacturing enterprises in your neighboring city of Little Falls."

"Were the country to become involved in a foreign war or were a hostile army to invade our shores the sons of the men who wore the gray would be the first to enroll themselves under the flag of the union. Fitzhugh Lee and Joe Wheeler of the south were the first to enroll in our little skirmish with Spain."

"What I am about to say may not meet with the approbation of you old soldiers; in fact you have already placed yourselves on record in the matter, but, in all sincerity, I maintain that it is not to be wondered at that the proud state of Virginia should delight to honor the memory of the son of "Light-Horse Harry Lee," by placing his statue in the hall of fame in the national capitol. True Robert E. Lee was a rebel, and if the war for independence had failed his illustrious ancestors would also have been classed as rebels. In 1861 Robert E. Lee wrote "I cannot anticipate a greater calamity for the country than the dissolution of the Union." It was only after long and powerful consideration that Lee decided to cast his fortunes with his native state. He was an intelligent, observant and far seeing man, and had been governed by motives of self-interest he would have decided otherwise, for he must have known that the rebellion could not succeed. When tendered the command of the army of the United States, through Mr. Francis Preston Blair, he declined, stating that though opposed to secession and deprecating war, he could take no part in the invasion of the southern states. Do not understand me as approving of or justifying Lee's course, but I do believe that his action was prompted by the purest and most conscientious motives from his viewpoint. I believe that he was equally as sincere in all tests and trials as a true leader. Just think, this car is yours for the effort.

CAPITAL PRIZE—Is a $500 Stone Piano. This prize is well worth winning as it is one of the handiest and best musical instruments on the market today. SAVAGE ATHLETICS.

Canary Islanders Who Would Have Made Good Ball Players.

In this age of athletics one might think that no people ever showed so much interest in feats of muscular might and skill as those who have perfected football, but modern games, and even the games of the Greeks at Olympia, may have been more than matched by the sports of peoples now held in light esteem. We have the accounts of excellent authorities for the contention that the athletic training of Canary Islanders makes even the college giants of today seem weak and effeminate.

These islands came into subjection to Spain about the time Columbus discovered America. The conquest was due solely to the superiority of European weapons and not to better skill and prowess. Native soldiers were trained athletes developed under a system that held athletic sports to be an important business, like military drill.

Spanish chronicles have left accounts of sports of the islanders. From babyhood they were trained to be brisk in self defense. As soon as they could toddle the children were pelted with mud balls that they might learn how to protect themselves. When they were boys stones and wooden darts were substituted for bits of clay.

In this rough school they acquired the rudiments of warfare which enabled them during their wars to catch in their hands the arrows shot from their enemies' crossbows.

After the conquest of the Canaries a native of the islands was seen at Seville who, for a silver piece, let a man throw at him as many stones as he pleased from a distance of eight paces. Without moving his left foot he avoided every stone.

Another native used to defy any one to hurl an orange at him with so great rapidity that he could not catch it. Three men tried this, each with a dozen oranges, and the islander caught every orange. As a further test he hit his antagonists with each of the oranges—St. Louis Republic.

BROWN'S PARTNER.

The All Around Genius That Would Just Fill the Bill.

The following is quoted from the American Magazine and is signed by H. Lee:

"Here's the whole thing in a nutshell," said Brown to me. "I am now twenty-eight years old, have my own business and have brought it to such a state that I have decided to take a partner."

"Take one," answered I.

"There's the rub," he gave back. "My partner must be such an all around knowing one that I'm afraid I'll have hard work to fill the position.

"My partner must be able to make laws and to enforce them, must be able to carry out complicated chemical work, must be a skilled mechanic, must know something of economics, must be able to buy wares of all kinds with due consideration of my finances and must be able to do tailoring of a kind if necessary."

"Hold on, Brown!" said I. "Are you dippy, as the vulgarians say?"

"No," replied he. "I want a wife. Look around among your friends and see if any one man among them could do all that a good housewife should be able to do. She must make just laws for the family and enforce them. She must understand the complicated processes of cooking. Making, mending, washing, ironing and otherwise caring for the clothing of a family require mechanical skill. Bringing up a child properly requires far more knowledge and wisdom than selling dry goods of standard makes and prices year after year. Where are more science and skill required than in the sickroom? And if the wife does not know how to do all of these things how can she direct the work of her paid help, especially if the help knows less than she does?"

"My dear boy," said I, "do the way 90 per cent of us do—marry and trust to luck."
